

CONGRATULATIONS!
2011 Tim Stafford Unsung Hero Award
Debbie Dorris

Debbie Dorris, Joseph Harp Correctional Center, with Trooper Steve Burrows with COL Kerry Pettingill, Chief of Patrol, Oklahoma Highway Patrol and Misti Stafford-Lipps and Special Olympics Athlete Amy Wollmershauser. Debbie Dorris was presented with the award at the 2011 Law Enforcement Torch Run Kick-Off Luncheon, January 27, 2011 in Midwest City.

Debbie has been involved with Special Olympics Oklahoma and the LETR for 16 years. She has been in charge of a golf tournament for over 15 years. She has also done a poker run for the last 7 years. She has been involved in Tip-A-Cops at several restaurants throughout the Norman and Oklahoma City area. She has been involved with the Cops on Doughnut Shop Roof Sits since they started in 2003. Debbie is the South Area Representative to the Oklahoma LETR Committee and has been on the LETR Committee since for over 10 years. She has been a Representative of Oklahoma LETR to the International Conference since 2001. Debbie was a Final Leg Runner for the 2007 World Summer Games in Shanghai. Debbie has helped raise over thousands of dollars for LETR and Special Olympics. She attends Summer and Winter Games and is involved in her area games. Her human kindness, unselfishness and unconditional love for the Special Olympic Athlete is second to none. Debbie has a great rapport with the athletes in her area and is there for them when she is needed at whatever event, be it a fundraiser or sporting event.
