Mark Wollmershauser 1996 Unsung Hero

Mark Wollmershauser of the Tulsa Police Department is the recipient of the 2006 Tim Stafford “Unsung Hero” Memorial Award. Wollmershauser has been involved with Special Olympics Oklahoma and the Law Enforcement Torch Run for more than 17 years.

Over the years, Wollmershauser has served as the co-leader for the Tulsa Police Department’s involvement in the Torch Run. In 2003, his peers elected him to serve as the NE Regional Representative on the statewide Torch Run executive committee, and he still holds this position today. He has attended several International Torch Run Conferences and currently serves as a committee member of the 2007 International Torch Run Conference planning committee.

He has made a difference in his community, in our state and in the International Torch Run organization. His wisdom and experience are invaluable to the Torch Run program and Special Olympics Oklahoma. He is, without a doubt, an Unsung Hero.
